Mr. Webber-There is a reason. There is civil action pending between the same parties. chief, and it is simply fishing for evidence in speci about this article and no word was said about the publication of this paper, consequently no question can arise in cross-examination. It is simply fishing for evidence, just as much as when he says he has been advised that there is no libel. The complainant is perfectly justified fusing to answer such a question and should be protected by the Court. Can Mr. Brandt give any reason why he puts that question ? Mr. Brandt-I want to point out the reason for my writing this letter-possible privilege and possible justification, Mr. Webber-If the defendant is going to plead justification the case is at an end so far sa your Wership is concerned.

His Worship-The word "privilege" is the right word to supress it-Mr. Webber-He says he has taken and acting on legal advice, and although it was a most irregular statement to make, if he is goting, he should use the proper phraseology.
